Go do your thing

This timetable shows all trains between Middlesbrough, Sunderland, Newcastle, Hexham and Carlisle.

How to read this timetable

1. Find your departure station in the left-hand column.
2. Read across the row to find a train time that suits you.
3. Follow the same column down to see the arrival time at your destination station.

Bold station names show where trains start, finish, or where you may need to change trains. If your journey requires a change, follow the same column to the station shown in bold and then continue your journey using the connecting train shown in that row. Additional information is shown in the notes section at the bottom of the timetable.

Minimum connection times

The minimum time to change between trains is five minutes, unless stated otherwise. At Newcastle and Carlisle, allow at least eight minutes.

Community Rail Partnerships and community groups

We work closely with all the Community Rail Partnerships (CRPs) across our network to strengthen links with local communities. We provide CRPs with funding for their work, including promoting rail travel, supporting community projects, encouraging sustainable travel, and helping to make the railway more accessible and inclusive.

Improving our railway

Improvement work helps us deliver a safer and more reliable railway. Sometimes this means train times may change, particularly at weekends and bank holidays.

Check before you travel at northernrailway.co.uk/service-updates or call National Rail Enquiries on 03457 48 49 50.

Delay Repay

If one of our trains is delayed or cancelled and you arrive 15 minutes or more late to your destination, you can claim compensation through Delay Repay.

You will need to submit your claim to us within 28 days of the date of travel by completing an online form or collecting a paper form from one of our stations or download it from our website and post it to us at FREEPOST Northernrailway. Find out more at help.northernrailway.co.uk/s/article/Delay-Repay
